Posts October Newsletter on its Website

If you weren't able to attend the last North Pacific Fishery Management Council meeting earlier this month, you can catch up on what happened by reading the Council's October newsletter, which has been posted to the Council's Website. During its initial review process, the Council took up one of the major issues, the GOA Pacific cod sector split, on October 3, 2009. A number of options are being considered. For more information, visit the link below. Final action is expected during the week of December 7, 2009.
