ORDINANCES

Introduction Ordinance 19-03, amending the operating and capital budget for the Aleutians East Borough Fiscal year 2019:

MOTION

BRENDA moved to accept and set for Public Hearing second by Josephine.

DISCUSSION

Ernie Weiss, said the consultant, Eric Volk was contracted as a part-time consultant for support efforts on the Board of Fisheries meeting in February. Weiss communicates with him weekly. Volk worked also during the Special Board of Fisheries meeting recently. Volk is a retired ADF&G person, one of the lead authors of WASSIP, and chair of the advisory committee and everybody supported contracting with him. He is traveling to Kodiak to meet with the Dept. of Fish & Game. He has been busy, attending all our teleconferences. We contracted Volk as a part-time position, but have been using him more so he advocated the increase in the contract amount. His contract expires after February Board of Fisheries meeting.

Mayor Osterback said one of the biggest road blocks at the last Board of Fisheries meeting was not understanding the WASSIP study. The WASSIP study is the latest study and this time we have the author who understands the study. At first he was going to be involved in other things, but they are all tied together. He was instrumental at the Special Board of Fish meeting. The recommended increase is money spent well to help us get through the February meeting. This is going to be a tough Board of Fisheries meeting and there is no one better to explain the WASSIP study.

Chris reiterated his understanding that this is a $2,000 increase per month, increasing monthly amount to $6,500. Chris asked if he works for anyone one else. Weiss answered no. Chris suggested a report once in a while to see exactly what he is doing. Weiss said accountability is a good thing and Volk can do that.

Paul commented that Eric Volk is worth his weight in gold and his participation through all the Board of Fisheries has been good.

Mayor Osterback said he believes Charlotte is going to do a good job as the Natural Resources Assistant Director, our whole staff is going to do a good job. He reminded fishermen not to get lax at this time, a lot of local expertise is going to be necessary. AEB will have the technical people, which includes Eric Volk, but is still need to rely on fishermen. Fishermen need to attend the meeting.

Warren wants to make sure we have all the legal aspects covered as well, not just WASSIP.

Mayor Osterback said when the Chignik escapement issue happened in June, the only association in our area is Area M Seiners Association. They hired Mark Slonim, who is a good fisheries litigation attorney. Instead of spending money on another attorney, we put into the fund to help pay for Mark Slonim, representing everyone. We are trying to cover all bases because we know how important this is. Warren agrees and hopes a lot fishermen attend.

Quarter Two, Aleutians East Borough Strategic Plan Update:

The Administrator said representatives from all the communities participated in the December, 2017 planning work session where the strategic initiatives were defined. In the packet, is the updated quarter two, Strategic Plan, Vision Navigation Chart. The chart shows what strategic initiatives have been accomplished, some moved over to next quarter. Mayor Osterback noted that the navigation chart keeps us on track and a useful tool.

Discussion only - Akun/Akutan Transportation Link White Paper:

Mayor Osterback said he requested Laura Tanis to do a white paper on the Akun/Akutan Transportation Link. The Administrator said in the packet is the outline of the project history, January 2010 to present. This is a very useful, living document that will keep changing as we move forward. Laura Tanis did a great job researching all the information.

Comment period extension for the Draft 2016 Pink Salmon Disaster Funds Distribution Plan:

Resource Director, Ernie Weiss, said the comment period has been extended to September 18. Anyone can go online and make comments. He drafted some language after talking with Assembly Member, Gronholdt. In regards to Assembly Member Carol Foster's comments, we would like to see as much as possible to go to the fishermen. Draft State plan in the packet. There are four components – research, fishermen, municipalities, and processors.

Mayor Osterback suggested fishermen go online and comment on the distribution. He added that he didn't see anything in there covering set netters and set netters should be included, because they lost out on fishing time due to the season closing. He agrees the fishermen need to capture as much as they can.

Paul said the current state plan has $2.4M divided to municipalities, which does not include AEB. Weiss drafted comments requesting AEB be considered in municipalities. Right now AEB will receive zero as a municipality. He stressed the importance of all gear groups and individuals to make comments. Mayor Osterback agrees, AEB should also be included in that and it wouldn't affect the fishermen percentage.

Sport Guide Tax:

Mayor Osterback said we will request a copy of Lake & Peninsula Borough ordinance on their sport guide tax to see how they tax sport fishing operations. The Administrator said we will review that ordinance and review AEB resource permit program and bring back to the Assembly.

Chris said Emil Mobeck came over to King Cove and appreciates the work done on the AEB office building also.

Paul suggested inviting representatives from the three processors to the December Assembly meeting to hear first-hand as to what their plans are.

Chris congratulated Charlotte Levy on her new position as Resource Director Assistant.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

City of King Cove Mayor, Henry Mack said, hopes to get future airline service out to region to discuss our travel concerns. Will have five processors in the area this summer. Concerned in King Cove and feels services need to change for the better. Hope the AEB and cities can get together and meet with the new airline service to voice our concerns. He added the hydro project dedication is scheduled and thanked AEB for their contribution.

Mayor Osterback agrees to voice our concerns by meeting with the air carrier as soon as everyone is in place.

Mayor Osterback welcomed Charlotte Levy in new position. She knows the number one issue is the February Board of Fish meeting, and will get up to speed. He suggested people from the region stop in, provide input and get to know her. Charlotte brings to the mix, thinking outside the box with projects, like kelp mariculture. There are things developing in the rest of the State that we need to take a hard look at and begin developing in our region. Opportunities that allow people to stay here and make income. Smaller fishery opportunities do provide income to families, like cod jig and pot fishing. As we progress down the road, need to expand what we have for income opportunities. We will work on getting her in the region to visit communities.
